

This is the original Methodist church, built in 1877 and burned in a fire in 1915. The church was built when the Reverend Warren Nines began hauling rocks, by himself, to build the foundation. When people saw his labors they were impressed by his work. Many soon came to help with donations as well as labor, and the church was completed.

Fairfield's Pioneer History of Lassen County by Asa Merrill Fairfield

THE METHODIST CHURCH ON LASSEN ST.
by Susan Couso